

Outcome of the Programme:

Our Students are placed in different R&D laboratories as researcher and also in teaching positions in India and abroad after getting success in NET/SET and GATE examinations. Toppers of final examination in each year of this department have been awarded with inspire research fellowship. Students are also placed in industries and in different public sector organisations. The department also offers regular Ph.D. program with quality research.

