

About the Author

Aims and Scopes: The Journal of Physical Sciences (JPS) is a multi-disciplinary journal and publishes the original research works in all basic sciences such as Mathematics, Statistics, Physics, Chemistry, Computer Science etc. The journal welcomes research papers bearing some applications to scientific problems in all branches.

Publisher: This journal is published annually by the Registrar, Vidyasagar University, Midnapore – 721102, West Bengal, India.

Editorial Policy: To publish in the JPS, a paper must be of good quality that presents a clear and insightful exposition of significant aspects of contemporary research. Also it must be an original work that has neither appeared in, nor is under review by other journals. The final manuscript with JPS format (style) is restricted up to 20 pages. But we do put no restrictions on the invited articles.

Publication Charges: There are no page charges.

Off-Prints: For each article, one hard copy of the Journal will be sent to the first author free of cost. Also e-print of the article will be sent through email.

Copyright: It is a fundamental condition for publication that submitted manuscripts have not been published, nor will be simultaneously submitted or published elsewhere. Upon submission of an article, the authors will have to agree that the copyright of the article will be automatically transferred to the publisher at the time when the article is accepted for publication. This transfer will ensure the widest possible dissemination of information. The copyright covers the exclusive rights to reproduce and distribute the article, including reprints, photographic reproduction, microform or any other reproductions of similar nature and translations.

Subscription Information: The annual subscription price is as follows:
In India: Rs. 50, all other countries : $50.

Submission of Manuscript: The Journal is devoted to original research articles. These are papers of the highest quality that present a clear and insightful exposition of significant aspects of contemporary research in various fields of sciences. Authors are encouraged to submit original work that has neither appeared in, nor is under review by other journals. A reasonable amount of compactness is essential and readability of papers is considered important. The language of publication is English only. The journal maintains strict refereeing procedures through its editorial policies in order to publish papers of only high quality. Authors must have responsibility of the contents of their papers. Papers may be submitted by the authors in either of following two ways. Author(s) must provide a list of THREE possible reviewers' names with full addresses containing e-mail addresses.

(1) Manuscripts intended for publication are required to be sent as DOC file in CD/Floppy to the following address:

Dr. Madhumangal Pal
 Department of Applied Mathematics with Oceanology and Computer Programming,
 Vidyasagar University,
 Midnapore – 721 101, West Bengal, India.
 E-mail: mmpalvu@gmail.com

(2) Authors may submit their manuscripts electronically in DOC file format through the following e-mail address:

mmpalvu@gmail.com

Style of Manuscript: All manuscripts should be submitted in English. To avoid delay all submissions should be prepared according to the following guidelines:

(1) The form: The manuscripts must be typed in single spaced. The use of 11pt fonts is required and all pages are to be numbered.

(2) The typing area: It should not exceed 5.2 in x 8.5 in. Page width 8.5 in, length 10 in; margins: left 1.5 in, right 1.8 in, top 1 in and bottom 1.5 in.

(3) The first page: It should contain the title, the name of the author(s), an abstract not exceeding 160 words which must contain main facts followed by key words and phrases.

(4) The last page: It should contain the list of references followed by the author's institution with an e-mail address.

(5) References: The titles of papers and books should be italic . The reference list should be preceded by a reference number with no square brackets alphabetically (in lexicographic order of the last name). The word REFERENCES should be capitalized and centered above the reference list. These should be styled and punctuated according to the following examples:

1. N. Abramson, Information Theory and Coding, McGraw-Hill, Inc., New York, 1963
2. A. Rosenfeld, Fuzzy Groups, J. Math. Anal. Appl. 35(1971), 512-517
3. L.A. Zadeh, Fuzzy Sets, Inform and Control, 8(1965), 338-365

(6) Final manuscript: Authors are encouraged to submit MS-Word versions of their final (accepted) manuscripts on diskette or by email and accompanied by one hard copy of the manuscript. Submitting a typeset file may reduce the publication time significantly.

(7) All figures and tables should be planned to fit the proportions of the printed page 5.2 in x 8.5 in and numbered consecutively with Arabic numerals in the order of appearance in the text. They can be designed by MS-Word. If not possible, the space for each figure must be kept blank appropriately. Also all authors are strongly recommended to submit PS or EPS or BMP files for their figures. If not possible, each figure must be printed or drawn in high quality on a separate sheet and the author(s) should submit it with his/her manuscript. The figures should have captions and they numbered serially.

(8) All tables should be designed by MS-Word. The tables should have captions and they numbered serially.

(9) Sections should be in boldface, centered and numbered with Arabic numerals. They should not be capitalized.

(10) Subsections should be in boldface, indent (not centered) and numbered with Arabic numerals. They should not be capitalized.

(11) The Titles, Theorem, Corollary, Proposition, Lemma, Definition and Remark etc. should be in boldface, left-justified and numbered consecutively. The first character of each word should be capitalized and the rest of it should not be capitalized. The contents of these titles except for Remark and Definition must be italic.

(12) The word Proof should be italic and left-justified. "a little box (\square)" should be put at the end of Proof.

(13) The final manuscript with JPS format (style) is restricted up to 20 pages. But we do put no restrictions on the invited articles.

(14) All other instructions for the accepted manuscripts will be given to the related authors.
