Discussion: The NEP core committee designed the format of the draft syllabi for different PG courses, and sent them to the respective departments (except MBA, MCA and Agriculture courses) for approval. The MBA and MCA programmes were exempted from this exercise, as their syllabi are meant to be designed as per AICTE norms. The Agriculture courses were also exempted, as their syllabi are meant to be designed as per ICAR norms.

As per a meeting with all departments, feedback was taken on the format of the syllabus circulated, and accordingly the format of the syllabi was redesigned. The draft syllabi were submitted by the departments in line with the changed format.

A discussion was also held on the draft syllabus of the MSW programme. It was observed that the earlier syllabus of the MSW programme was not designed in adherence with a credit structure. In such a scenario, it was decided for a credit structure to be introduced in the new MSW syllabus.

A few departments also highlighted the fact that the IKS and "Life and Philosophy of Vidyasagar" courses were not included in the syllabi for certain departments. These departments, however, included their own version of the IKS course in their syllabi.

It was also noted that a few departments designed the syllabi for their respective PG programmes for only the Semester-I.

Resolution:

- It is resolved that the NEP 2020 guidelines be implemented in all PG programmes. This would be effective from the 2025-26 academic session.
- It is resolved that the syllabi for MBA and MCA be approved as per AICTE norms, and NEP 2020 guidelines be implemented in the same in future, keeping in line with AICTE norms, based on the needs of the concerned departments.
- After a detailed discussion, it is resolved that the syllabi for Agriculture courses be approved as per ICAR norms. It is also noted that the ICAR norms governing the syllabi have already incorporated NEP 2020 guidelines and therefore, do not need further revision.
- Resolved that the new complete syllabi (based on NEP) for the following subjects are approved, with effect from the 2025-26 academic session. Those departments that submitted only the syllabus for Semester-I have been given approval for only that portion.
